
Lambert Apprentice Winner of Regional EEF Future Manufacturing Outstanding Apprentice of the Year Award 2014

Lambert Apprentice, Will MacQuarrie of Stillingfleet, York was named the EEF Regional Apprentice of the Year 2014 at a celebration lunch at Ridding Park Hotel, Harrogate on 09 February 2015. Hosted by BBC presenter, Wendy Gibson, The North East, Yorkshire and Humber regional winners of the EEF Future Manufacturing Awards were announced in an event celebrating the very best of British Manufacturing. Will, 23, up against stiff competition from 5 other shortlisted apprentices from companies such as Rolls Royce, Komatsu and Darchem Engineering, now goes on to compete with other regional winners from across the UK for the national title at an awards gala dinner in London in April 2015.

John Morris, CEO of JAM Recruitment and on the judging panel, commented “This award was justly deserved. Will was up against some really strong contenders so it’s a great achievement and testament to his hard work and dedication that he won.”
